Hopefully from the videos you've learnt:
- Why we don't use iterative servers
- How concurreny can help ensure service availability
- The differences in using processes/threads

And then also a little bit about security:
- What security is
- How we should approach security
- What hashes are and are not
- How hashing and salting can help